

The Public Sector Equality Duty has three main aims:

- Eliminate unlawful discrimination, harassment and victimisation and other conduct prohibited by the Act.
- Advance equality of opportunity between people who share a protected characteristic and those who do not. Protected characteristics defined in the Equality Act 2010 are: Age; Disability; Race, colour, nationality, ethnic or national origin; Sex (including transgender); Gender reassignment; Maternity and pregnancy; Religion and belief; Sexual orientation; and Marriage and civil partnership (for employees).
- Foster good relations between people who share a protected characteristic and those who do not.

The Public Sector Equality Duty requires all schools to

- Publish information to demonstrate how they are complying with the Public Sector Equality Duty (updated at least annually).
- Prepare and publish equality objectives (published at least once every four years in compliance with the Public Sector Equality Duty).
