

The Big Question: The Romans- How have the Romans influenced our lives today?

	I like to explore	I like Maths	I like English	I like being creative	I like being kind and helpful	Time to get physical!
Strengthen your learning	When was the first Roman invasion of Britain?	What are the names of the coins and notes that we have in our money system?	Who was Julius Caesar? Write 5 facts.	Produce a sketch of a Roman soldier. Think about the clothing and armour he would be wearing and what he would use for protection.	Spend a day with a member of your family doing all of their favourite activities.	Go for a walk in your local area. Draw a map of where you went and what you saw. Is there anything new in your local area at this time of year?
Deepen your learning	On a map locate the path of the Roman invasion through Europe.	Make a list of 5 different toys or products you would like, find out the price of the items and order them in ascending order of their cost	Create a leaflet about Pompeii. How does it link to Mount Vesuvius and the great eruption of AD79?	Look at Roman mosaic patterns. Find out how they were made and what they were used to decorate.	Help out at home in a different way each week of the half term. You could vacuum, or wash up after a meal, or dust and polish a room in your house. What other jobs could you?	Find out about a famous fitness coach and create a fact file about them. What are their reasons for being an exercise coach and why do you think it is important to be active each day?
Take the mission!	Investigate Julius Caesar and Claudius. What are the similarities and differences about them and how did they contribute to the successful invasion of Britain?	If a computer costs £123 and you are given £8 pocket money each week, how many weeks will you need to save your pocket money to be able to buy it? Do you know how many months it would take you to save that amount of money?	Imagine you are a Roman soldier and you have been involved in the conquest at Hadrian's Wall. What did you witness? What part did you play in the conquest? Write a report giving details of the conquest.	Create a 3D model of a Roman Shield. Explain how you have made it and the materials that you have used.	Make a surprise gift or a meal for a member of your family. Take pictures to show what you have made. Can you write about the reason you chose to make a gift for this person?	What is your favourite sport? Why is it your favourite and how will this sport keep you fit and healthy?

