1	anonymous	I think some teachers need further training for children with extra needs. Alot of the time it's brushed under the carpet!!
2	anonymous	My daughter loves nursery and the teachers!
3	anonymous	The school is good, there are area of improvement such as using class dojo more clear. Teachers in reception have been amazing and always open to talk, supported my child since starting in a number of mentally difficult times and my child speaks highly of teachers though out the school. I feel school country wide need better training especially when working in deprived ares like we are based. But overall the school has been excellent for my child and has thought her more that I was expecting and the teachers have personalty unlike some settings I have seen with "robot staff"

15	anonymous	Lunchtime is an issue

16	anonymous	Hight concers
17	anonymous	Receptionist make too many mistakes.
18	anonymous	I think the teachers need to listen to kids to hear their side of the story. Dinner lady [REDACTED] seems to assume things without asking the children what is going on and go reports to teachers. From a professional point of view I think children need to be listened to as well.
19	anonymous	None
20	anonymous	I wish that the school should add after school club
